Enjoy an evening of captivating Hawaiian music with

Sean “Olanui” Robbins

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

6:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Kīlauea Visitor Center

Sean "Olanui" Robbins is a Puna, Hawai'i raised triple-threat talent and is quickly earning a reputation as a kī hō'alu (slack-key) rising star and a haku mele (Hawaiian songwriter). The 21-year old local boy is often described as an old soul contained in a young body, and the protégé of slack key master and legendary musician, Cyril Pahinui. With a great respect for the “old style” of Hawaiian music playing taught by kūpuna, Sean was also taken under the wings of the famous musical Keli'īho'omalū 'ohana in Kaimū, Kalapana, Hawai'i. Sean's first CD Olanui is a Hōkū award winner, and a taste of what is to come. We are happy that Sean calls Hawai'i Island his home so we can showcase his heartfelt music.

*Nā Leo Manu is part of 'Ike Hana No'eau, a series of Hawaiian cultural programs sponsored by Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park and Hawai'i Pacific Parks Association
Park entrance fees may apply.*
